As a devoted chamber musician and soloist, Ozgur Kaya plays a Giovanni Battista Gabrielli cello kindly loaned to him through the Beare's International Violin Society by a generous sponsor. Born in Ankara, Ozgur joined the Bilkent University Music Faculty in 2017, where along with his cello education he also studied composition with Ulkemin Akbas and participated in classes of renown composers such as Bruno Mantovani and Mark Andre. Followed by continuing his cello studies at The Yehudi Menuhin School.

He has had the chance to collaborate with musicians such as Colin Carr, Robert Levin and the Endellion & the Fitzwilliam Quartets. He has performed alongside artists such as John Williams, Charles Owen, Ashley Wass and Viktor Tretiakov.

He has been studying cello at the Royal College of Music in London, with Alexander Chaushian since 2021, as the Amaryllis Fleming Scholar and viola da gamba with Reiko Ichise as the "Parnassus Scholar", ISH Award holder, also supported by the Talent Unlimited Foundation.

Ozgyr was invited by Farnham Sinfonia as the cello soloist in their performance of Schumann's Cello Concerto in March 2022.

Young violinist and pianist Misha Skripach lives in Guildford and studies at the Royal College of Music with Professor Felix Andrievsky. He performed at a fund raising concert for the Spire Church last autumn and the video and others are on YouTube.
