

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Tilford Bach Society

I report on the accounts of the Society for the year ended 31st December 2013, which are set out in the accompanying Balance Sheet and Income & Expenditure Account.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that an audit under the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act") is not required for this year, and that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under the Act, to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with the Act, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act, have not been met; or (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
