

TILFORD BACH SOCIETY

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

I report on the accounts of the Tilford Bach Society (the charity) for the year ended 31 December 2016.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. You consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility:

- To examine the accounts under section 145 of the Act;
- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 145(5)(b) of the Act; and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Act, and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act
- have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
