Clare Findlater

During her time studying at the Birmingham Conservatoire, Clare Findlater began freelancing professionally with the CBSO and Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra. After completing her Bachelor of Music with First Class Honours, she went on to continue her studies at the Royal Academy of Music where she was awarded a scholarship from the Countess of Munster and also won the Flute Prize in her first year of Postgraduate studies.

Clare juggled her studies alongside teaching at the Junior Birmingham Conservatoire and Downe House Girls' school, as well as being invited to work with various London Orchestras and in the West End.

For three consecutive Summers she was a member of the Verbier Festival Orchestra in Switzerland, working with artists such as Maxim Vengerov, Evgeny Kissin, Martha Argerich and Jean-Yves Thibaudet and under the batons of Kurt Masur, James Levine, Rostropovich and Charles Dutoit.

Tomos Xerri

Born and raised in Wales, Tomos Xerri is now based in Hampshire and enjoys a varied performing career in London and across the UK. As a solo recitalist he has performed at the Wigmore Hall, the Royal Festival Hall, for the late HM The Queen, and at Downing Street; he has performed in chamber music concerts alongside members of the Philharmonia Orchestra and Britten Sinfonia, and enjoys regular work with leading orchestras such as the London Philharmonic and the Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestras.
