TBS continues to operate with a retiring collection rather than fixed-price tickets.

Please give generously to support these concerts. For those who can afford it, we suggest a minimum of £10 per adult in the afternoon and £15 in the evening (under 25 free). Payments in cash are preferred, but card payments may be made using the new SumUp card reader, which should be easier than the PayPal one.

If you are a tax payer please use the envelopes provided and fill in your name and, if you have not already done so, the Gift Aid Declaration so that we can maximise the tax that we reclaim.

If you use the SumUp card reader and can add Gift Aid, please write your name on the print out and put it in the collection pot, or complete an envelope stating the amount donated by card.

Daniel Hill

Cornish-born Daniel Hill studied at Wells Cathedral School and the Royal College of Music, London, where his piano teachers were John Byrne and John Barstow. He graduated with First Class Honours and a Postgraduate Distinction, and has since established himself as a versatile musician, at home on the concert platform as solo recitalist or chamber musician.

He has performed worldwide at venues including Wigmore Hall and the Southbank Centre and has broadcast many times on BBC television, BBC Radio 3, Classic FM and Radio France. He has appeared as soloist in Concertos by Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninov and Constant Lambert.

In addition to his performing career, Daniel holds teaching positions at the Royal College of Music Junior Department and Charterhouse School.
